

McConnell Springs Park – 2010

January

2nd – Winter Tree Identification – 11am
Grab your hat and gloves and learn how to identify trees in winter. ❄️❄️

16th – Junior Naturalist – 11am – 12pm
“Trees In Winter” – Children 10 years and younger come be a junior naturalist.

February

6th – Birding at the Springs – 9am
Join us for a winter bird walk. 🐦

20th – Junior Naturalist – 11am – 12pm
“Our Feathered Friends” – Children 10 years and younger come be a junior naturalist.

March

6th – Geocaching at the Springs – 11am
Try your hand at the great world-wide GPS activity.

20th – Junior Naturalist – 11am – 12pm
“Animal Tracks” – Children 10 years and younger come be a junior naturalist.

30th – Spring Break – 10am – 12pm
K-5th grade students can discover nature through hands-on activities and crafts.

April

1st – Spring Break – 10am – 12pm
K-5th grade students can discover nature through hands-on activities and crafts. 🌳

3rd – Trees are Terrific! – Arbor Day – 11am
Join us in celebrating Arbor Day with a tree program and tree planting activity.

17th – Junior Naturalist – 11am – 12pm
“Can’t Wait to Plant” – Children 10 years and younger come be a junior naturalist.

May

1st – Birding at McConnell Springs – 8:30am
This is a great time of year to see migrating birds. Come join us for a bird walk!

8th – Audubon Celebration – 9am – 4pm
Join the Bluegrass Audubon Society in their Centennial celebration.

15th – Founders’ Day – 10am – 4pm
The annual celebration of the founding of Lexington. Patrons can enjoy historic reenactments, storytellers, musical entertainment, and tours of the park.

June

5th – Wildflowers – 11am
Grab your camera and learn more about native flowers and their folklore. 🌸

5th & 12th – Wooden Spoon Carving Class
Learn to carve a wooden cooking spoon with the Lexington Wood Carvers Guild (Cost is $10.00 and Registration is Required)
10am – 12pm.

10th – History to Chew On – 6 – 8pm
Join us for this brown bag dinner series that explores the history of Kentucky.

19th – Junior Naturalist – 11am – 12pm
“The Wonder of Water” – Children 10 years and younger come be a junior naturalist.

July

8th – History to Chew On – 6 – 8pm
Join us for this brown bag dinner series that explores the history of Kentucky.

17th – Junior Naturalist – 11am – 12pm
“Sun Prints” – Children 10 years and younger come be a junior naturalist.

August

7th – Butterflies and Dragonflies – 11am
Discover the butterflies and dragonflies of the Bluegrass and how to attract them. 🦋

7th, 14th, 21st, 28th – Wooden Bowl Carving Class - Learn to carve a wooden dough bowl with Lexington Wood Carvers Guild (Cost $20.00 and Registration is Required)
10am – 12pm

12th – History to Chew On – 6 – 8pm
Join us for this brown bag dinner series that explores the history of Kentucky.

21st – Junior Naturalist – 11am – 12pm
“Butterflies & Dragonflies” – Children 10 years and younger come be a junior naturalist.

September

4th – Birding at the Springs – 8:30am
This is a great time of year to see migrating birds. Come join us for a bird walk!

9th – History to Chew On – 6 – 8pm
Join us for this brown bag dinner series that explores the history of Kentucky.

18th – Junior Naturalist – 11am – 12pm
“Sock Walk” – Children 10 years and younger come be a junior naturalist.

October

2nd – Tree Identification – 11am
Learn how to identify native trees. 🍁

2nd – History of McConnell Springs – 1pm
Come learn about the site where Lexington was named.

7th – History to Chew On – 6 – 8pm
Join us for this brown bag dinner series that explores the history of Kentucky.

16th – Junior Naturalist – 11am – 12pm
“Leaf Printing” – Children 10 years and younger come be a junior naturalist.

23rd – Little Goblins Galore – 11am – 4pm
A friendly Halloween event for youth 12 and under that includes trick-or-treating, a petting zoo and carnival games. $5 per child with parents/guardians admitted for free.

November

6th – History of McConnell Springs -1pm
Come learn about the site where Lexington was named. 🦉

20th – Junior Naturalist – 11am – 12pm
“Amazing Owls” – Children 10 years and younger come be a junior naturalist.

December

4th – Winter Wildlife Treats – 11am
Make gifts for your backyard wildlife friends.

11th – Wooden Ornament Carving Class
Learn to carve a wooden ornament with Lexington Wood Carvers Guild (Cost $5.00 and Registration is Required)
10am – 12pm.

18th – Junior Naturalist – 10am – 12pm
“Wildlife Treats & Feeder Watch” – Children 10 years and younger come be a junior naturalist.

To register for a class or for more information please call
(859) 225-4073